MESSAGE:

Dear Examiner Shaw:

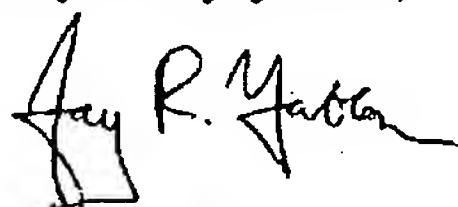

This is in reply to the above-referenced office action.

The only rejection in this case was a nonstatutory double patenting rejection over US Patent 6,617,275. This patent number which bears no relationship to applicant appears to be erroneous, and it is assumed particularly in light of the mention of 92 claims that examiner meant to refer to applicant's prior US patent 6,612,257.

Accordingly, please find attached a one-page terminal disclaimer in relation to US 6,612,257, as well as a credit card payment for $55 for the terminal disclaimer fee under 37 CFR 1.20(d).

By and with this reply, I hereby request further consideration of this application, and look forward to a notice of allowance.

Very truly yours,

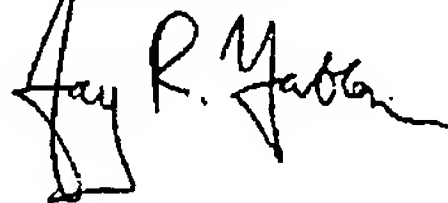

Jay R. Yablon, Registration # 30604

In re Application of: Robert A. George
Application No.: 10/604,983
Filed: August 29, 2003
For: Squirrel-Proof Bird Feeding Apparatus and Method

The owner*, Robert A. George of 100 percent interest in the instant application hereby disclaims, except as provided below, the terminal part of the statutory term of any patent granted on the instant application, which would extend beyond the expiration date of the full statutory term defined in 35 U.S.C. 154 and 173, as presently shortened by any terminal disclaimer, of prior Patent No. 6,612,257. The owner hereby agrees that any patent so granted on the instant application shall be enforceable only for and during such period that it and the prior patent are commonly owned. This agreement runs with any patent granted on the instant application and is binding upon the grantee, its successors or assigns.

In making the above disclaimer, the owner does not disclaim the terminal part of any patent granted on the instant application that would extend to the expiration date of the full statutory term as defined in 35 U.S.C. 154 and 173 of the prior patent, as presently shortened by any terminal disclaimer, in the event that it later expires for failure to pay a maintenance fee, is held unenforceable, is found invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, is statutorily disclaimed in whole or terminally disclaimed under 37 CFR 1.321, has all claims canceled by a reexamination certificate, is reissued, or is in any manner terminated prior to the expiration of its full statutory term as presently shortened by any terminal disclaimer.
